

MADERO VOLUNTARILY RESIGNS THE PRESIDENCY OF MEXICO

RESIGNATION IS NOW IN HANDS OF THE MEXICAN CONGRESS WHICH CONVENED LAST NIGHT AT 8 O'CLOCK

Senor Francisco de la Barra, Who Will Likely Succeed Madero in the Presidency, Assures the Crowds That a Peace Settlement Is Certain—De la Barra Held a Consultation With Both Madero and Diaz Regarding a Plan for Peace to Avoid Intervention of the United States.

MEXICO CITY, FEB. 14.—The resignation of Francisco I. Madero from the presidency is believed to be in the hands of the Mexican congress. It was authoritatively stated that Madero agreed to resign if the senate so wished. The senate was called into session about 8 o'clock tonight for the purpose of taking action on this important phase of the situation.

At the British legation, where Senor de la Barra took refuge Thursday, it is stated that Madero's resignation had practically been arranged for and that De la Barra would likely succeed him in the presidency.

Later De la Barra, while proceeding through the streets in an automobile, stopped and made a brief address, assuring the crowds that a peace settlement was certain and probably would be reached before morning. De la Barra had been in consultation with both Madero and Diaz regarding a quick settlement in order to avoid intervention.

Orders Firing to Cease.

At 6 o'clock tonight General Huerta, the federal commander, gave the order to cease firing. Soon detachments of federal troops were marching from their positions to the government base near the palace.

The laws of Mexico make it necessary for the resignation of the president to be submitted to congress and for this reason official announcement of the resignation of Madero would be considerably delayed, even if already decided upon.

Another development of the early evening was the resignation of Rafael Hernandez, as minister of the interior.

Diaz Will Fight.

Whether hostilities will be resumed tomorrow naturally depends on the action of the president and congress or upon the aggression of the rebels. In case of dilatory tactics it is not impossible that Diaz may decide to force the action. He has repeatedly said that nothing short of the resignation of the president would satisfy him—that Madero must resign or he himself would die fighting. Another exchange of notes took place today between General Huerta and the rebel commander. That of Huerta was of a conciliatory character. It offered Diaz permission to retire in peace with his men. Diaz replied that he would continue to fight.

His army repulsed with great loss, and after his absolute failure to subjugate Diaz, with not half the number of men, Madero was subjected to the pleading of his closest friends, many going so far as to demand his resignation.

The government has not been whipped, nor have the rebels. Diaz is not attempting to whip the government at present, but merely to resist it and for six days he and his forces have done that in an eminently brilliant manner, although the methods employed resulted in a ruthless bombardment of the capital by two heavy forces of artillery.

Damage Not Great.

The damage done today was not as great as on previous days but this was due merely to a change of tactics, and Mexicans high in public life, knowing that a continuation of hostilities in the city might easily result in intervention, spared no efforts to bring about a settlement.

Tired Soldiers Ready to Quit.

To those watching the battle it was no surprise to hear the bugles sound the order for the rebels to cease firing. The tired soldiers obeyed with alacrity but the effect on the rebel lines of Huerta's order was different. The small arm fire increased in volume, as if the besieged were expressing defiance. Ten minutes later all firing along the federal lines ceased but that from the rebels continued although in diminishing measure, a cannon now and then sending a shell first to one side and then to the other as if marking time.

During the day the rebels had not been reinforced but the federales had been and the claim was made by the government that it had no fewer than 6,000 men available. The rebels numbered 3,000, including several hundred men who deserted to them today.

Hopes For Settlement.

Francisco de la Barra, formerly provisional president, who in all probability will become president in succession to Madero, was accompanied to the arsenal and to the palace by the Spanish minister. He did not divulge the nature of his conversations but expressed the hope that hostilities were closed. What may be regarded as an important development though not known to Mexicans in the capital was the transmission by members

HEAVY FIGHTING REPORTED AT BULAIR

PORTIONS OF ADRIANOPOLE ARE SAID TO BE IN FLAMES

Constantinople Dispatch Reports That Bulair Line of Fortifications Was Captured by the Allies Tuesday—Turks Shoot Down Their Own Men.

LONDON, FEB. 14.—Heavy fighting with considerable losses is reported to have occurred at Bulair Thursday. Portions of the town of Adriano are said to be in flames from the bombardment.

So far reports that a detachment from the Turkish garrison at Adriano has deserted the Bulgarians lines.

Turkey is expelling Greek wholesale from Constantinople and around the Dardanelles.

An uncensored Constantinople despatch to the 'Chronicle' reports that the Bulair line of fortifications was captured by the allies Tuesday.

Shoot Their Own Men.

According to this account the Turkish fleet, operating from the Dardanelles, was assisting to repel the Bulgarian attack. The Bulgarians feinted a sudden retreat and were followed by the Turks. The Turkish warships, not realizing the situation continued their bombardment and inflicted heavy losses on their own men.

The Greek fleet in the Gulf of Saros supported the Bulgarians, who resumed and drove home their attack and thereby captured the forts.

Thirteen thousand Greeks landed on the Aegean coast at Alivath Monday. The Turkish position is considered precarious all along the line. The capture of Bulair has not been confirmed by other sources.

Turks Lose Many Men.

A Dardanelles despatch to the 'Daily Mail' dated Tuesday describes a similar Bulgarian ruse as having occurred on the previous Friday, with the result that the Bulgarian batteries on the slope of the Kurudash opened a terrible shrapnel fire. The Turks fled back to the shelter of the Bulair entrenchments with a loss of 3,000 killed and wounded.

The Constantinople correspondent of the 'Daily News' describes the demoralization of the Turks as Bulair, where he says, the first fighting proved the much vaunted Asiatic troops to be worthless. The correspondent adds that the Gallipoli armies are going to pieces exactly like Abdülhâ Pasha's host at Lule-Burgas and that Chos reigns at Tchatalja. Schefket Pasha, he declares, realizes that Turkey is unable to continue the war.

Uprising Long Planned.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 14.—The Mexico City uprising, it was learned here today, from the rebel junta, had been planned in the making every since Felix Diaz was transferred to the capital from Vera Cruz, after his ill-starred uprising of last year. Gen. Bernardino Reyes, it is declared, was to hold forth at the arsenal and a general who remained loyal to the Madero cause had been selected to assume command at Chepultepec.

Reyes' death and failure of the rebels to take the Zocalo, where the palace stands are cited as explaining where there were not more defections from the federal ranks.

Invasion Would Unite Troops.

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 14.—Manuel Lujan, rebel agent, is on a tour of the district below this point in an effort to prepare the various rebel chiefs for a combination with federal troops in the event of intervention by the United States. Rebel agents here declare that intervention would bring a combination of all factions in arms and that any invasion of alien troops would be hotly contested. Some 1,000 federal troops at Juraz await developments at the national capital. Rebels numbering nearly 2,000 in this vicinity likewise are active.

Officials Feel Relieved.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The news of Francisco I. Madero's voluntary relinquishment of the presidency of Mexico brought relief to official circles in Washington in which the situation during the last five days had been hourly growing more tense.

The announcement coming at the close of a day which had been steadily turning against Madero, hardly was surprising. It served instantly to clear the horizon of the storm clouds which came nearer as the prospect of armed interference on the part of the United States seemed inevitable.

State Department Officials.

Herbert Bland of the Franklin neighborhood was arrested Friday by Constable J. A. Crum on a state's warrant on a statutory charge and was brought before Squire W. T. Dyer. He waived examination and was placed under $200 bond for his appearance at the May term of court. His father, George Bland, was given as his surety.

JUSTICE COURTS.

Revival services will be conducted at the Brooklyn Methodist church beginning Feb. 19. For some time these special services have been under consideration and it was the plan to begin them earlier but the illness of the pastor caused a postponement. No evangelist will be present but Rev. J. A. Biddle of Murrayville will assist the pastor, Rev. Hy S. Alkire.

WEATHER INDICATIONS AND TEMPERATURES.

Washington, Feb. 14.—For Illinois: Cloudy Saturday, probably followed by snow and much colder in north portion; Sunday fair and cold; moderate variable winds becoming northerly.

Temperatures.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—The current, maximum and minimum temperatures for to day were:

GEN. STEWART WOODFORD DIED FRIDAY IN NEW YORK

Had Been Prominent in Public Life For Half a Century—Telegram Telling of His Going Received by Mrs. M. B. Tanner.

A telegram received Friday morning by Mrs. Marion B. Tanner announced the death of her cousin, Gen. Stewart Woodford, in New York city. The telegram came from Frederick C. Tanner, who for a number of years has been in New York in the law firm of which Gen. Woodford was the senior member. A year ago Gen. Woodford suffered a stroke of paralysis but rallied from it and the past summer was able to go abroad and while in England suffered a second stroke. For a time it was feared that he could not stand the journey home but he finally so far recovered that he was able to come. However, he gained but little in strength and his going had been anticipated for a number of weeks.

Mr. Tanner has not only been associated with Gen. Woodford in law practice but has been his close and intimate friend and as age came upon the older man he constantly leaned more heavily upon the younger and their relationship was like that of reverend father and a trusted son.

Gen. Woodford was a man of fine ideals of honor, of gentle heart, of unusual modesty. He had been honored in many public ways but through all the years his spirit was unchanged.

Nature of New York.

Stewart Lyndon Woodford was born in New York city Sept. 3, 1835, the son of the late Josiah Curtis Woodford. He was married twice, the first time to Julia Evelyn Capan in 1857 and again to Isabel Hanson in 1900. He received his education at Yale and Columbia.

Gen. Woodford was admitted to the bar in 1857 and began practice in New York. He soon attained prominence, being elected district attorney in 1861. In 1860 he served as the messenger to Washington of the New York Electoral college bearing the electoral vote of the state for Abraham Lincoln.

Served in War.

Mr. Woodford was prompt to answer the call of his country when war broke out, enlisting as a private in the volunteer army in 1862 and rising through the grades of lieutenant colonel and colonel, to that of brevet brigadier general. He left this position in 1865 for the military governorship of South Carolina. His only son died while the father was in the army service.

Resuming his legal practice in 1865, Gen. Woodford soon became active in political life. In 1867 he was elected lieutenant governor of New York and in '72 served as president of the electoral college of his state, casting the vote for President Grant. The next year he went to the house of representatives. In 1896, General Woodford was a member of the commission which drafted the charter for Greater New York.

U. S. Minister to Spain.

He did not follow Stewart Woodford's activity in public service. He was U. S. minister to Spain during the Spanish war, and a few years later the head of the Hudson-Fulton Centennial celebration in New York. He was head of the Hughes League in the 1908 campaign and at the Republican convention in 1908 nominated Hughes for the presidency.

The funeral will probably be held Monday and interment will be at Stanford, Conn.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME.

Fine Residence of Dr. and Mrs. Logan at Tolono Burns.

Friends of Dr. and Mrs. Logan will regret to learn that their beautiful home at Tolono, Ill., was completely destroyed by fire Monday afternoon. Dr. Logan married Miss Clara Rimley of Murrayville, and the doctor was associated for some time with Dr. C. M. Vertrees at Murrayville. They have been living at Tolono for the past two or three years. The fire occurred while Mrs. Logan was visiting out of town and the doctor had received a call to see a sick child. The doctor kept his office in the house so this added to the big loss, which was partially covered by insurance.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with stomach and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Rammekamp entertained for the members of the faculty and students of Illinois college Friday evening at their home on Lockwood Place. The residence was very prettily decorated for the occasion with roses and delicious refreshments were served by a number of the younger girl students.

The entertainment was rather delightful and unique departure from the usual programs at such functions each of the four college classes giving a feature, selecting their own performance. The program opened with an inaugural procession by the junior class, the parade being headed by the Princeton rooters, following which were Walter Smith as President-elect Wilson, Miss Anna Bellatti as Mrs. Wilson and Gaylen Dugger as President Taft. They were followed by soldiers, a band of suffragettes and the elephant, and donkey, representing the Republican and Democratic parties, were in evidence.

The next number was a very clever "Punch and Judy" show by the freshman class, with Stewart Russell and Franklin Butler in the character roles and Ernest Alford and Trixie Justus assisting. Following this the sophomores gave a motion picture show entitled: "The Near Sighted Cupid," all of the members of the class taking part and the performance was one that elicited a hearty round of applause. For their part of the program the seniors gave a section of "Alice in Wonderland" with Miss Genevieve Clark as Alice and the mad hatter, March hare, mock turtle, duchess and queen in evidence. All of the performances were well given and the judges—Miss Lillian Havenhill, Prof. Tanner and Prof. W. E. Krich, deliberated for quite a while before they selected the winner in the contest. The seniors were awarded the prize which consisted of a large Valentine box containing pop corn balls.

During the intermissions the students amused themselves with college songs and the affair proved one that will long be cherished. Dr. and Mrs. Rammekamp were assisted by the members of the faculty.

Mrs. W. E. Murry entertained the members of the Ladies aid society of the Literberry Baptist church Friday afternoon at her home in Literberry. The meeting was attended by a large number of members and invited guests and the afternoon was very pleasantly spent. In the contests prizes were awarded to Mrs. John Daniels and Mrs. Earl Rexroat. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. John Young entertained the members of the Clio Circle of the Christian church at her home in Literberry Friday afternoon. The affair was in the nature of a Valentine party and the decorations were in keeping with the season. Games, contests and music afforded entertainment for the afternoon and the prize was awarded to Miss Lora Petefish. During the course of the very delightful afternoon refreshments were served.

Mrs. Charles Hopper of 642 South Diamond street entertained at a kitchen rush Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Harry Strawn, formerly Miss Edith Whitmer, who was recently married. The guests included intimate friends of Mrs. Strawn and the afternoon was spent in a delightful social way, the guest of honor receiving a number of useful kitchen utensils. Delicious refreshments were served and Mrs. Hopper was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. C. C. Curtis.

CANTON WINS IN CLOSE GAME

J. H. S. LOSSES BASKETBALL HON-ORS 18 TO 17.

Fulton County School Takes Neck-to-Neck Contest From Local Quintet by 1 Point—Canton Team Out
For Smoking Reinstanted.

(Special to Journal)
Canton, Feb. 14.—In one of the closest and fastest games of basketball ever witnessed on the local field, Canton won from Jacksonville High school tonight by one point, the score being 18 to 17. It was a neck-to-neck race from start to finish and at no time did the score vary more than three points, this being true at the end of the first half when the score book showed the figures 12 to 9 in favor of Canton.

Both teams played brilliant basketball and there were no particular stars, each man playing a good steady game. Canton's first team opposed the visitors, the members, who had been dismissed from the squad several days ago because of smoking, had been reinstated.

The following was the line-up: Jacksonville—W. Boxell and Madox, forwards; Hale and Frey, center; D. Boxell and Kolp, guards.

Canton—Harmon, Buckley and Van Scykle, forwards; center, Fanning; guards, Heat and Byrum.

Officials—Referee, Buland (Jacksonville); umpire, Rinker (Canton).

VALENTINE PARTIES.

Caritas Lodge No. 625.

The members of Caritas Rebekah Lodge No. 625 held a masquerade party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Baldwin on East College avenue Friday evening. All the guests came masked and upon arriving found the home had been attractively decorated with hearts and flowers and cupids. In the photo contest held Ellis Henderson won first prize and in the indoor contests prizes were won by Mrs. George Hocking, Mrs. Edward Hopper and Mrs. M. Van Houten.

The evening was one of especial pleasure and during the time some splendid refreshments were served. The committee on entertaining consisted of Misses Inez McCullough, Alice McCullough and Josephine Hairgrove; refreshments, Mrs. Louis Plepenbring, Mrs. Edward Hopper and Mrs. M. Van Houten.

Misses Potter Entertain.

Misses Leila Potter and Evanda Potter gave a Valentine party at their home, 1220 West Lafayette avenue, Friday evening, to a limited number of friends. The time was spent in playing various amusing games, together with music. Delightful refreshments were served, the dinner table being prettily decorated in red roses. The place cards were red hearts pierced with cupid's arrow. The entire evening was one of much pleasure.

Alpha Delta Party.

The Alpha Delta, one of the girls' literary societies of the high school, were entertained Friday evening at the home of Miss Dorothy Danskin, 520 South Diamond street. The house was decorated in red and white, ferns and various shaped hearts representing the Valentine season, were used to pretty effect. Games were played and in the advertising contest first prize was won by Miss Lucille Johns. During the evening light refreshments were served.

The committees in charge follow: Decorations, Dorothy Kitter, Helen Obermeyer and Jane Pond; entertainment, Corrine Piepenbring and Helen Wintler; refreshments, Lucille Johns and Goldie Cohen, Miss Russell, faculty advisor of the society, and Principal and Mrs. W. A. Gore were among the guests present.

Gave Masquerade Party.

Jacksonville Rebekah Lodge No. 13 gave a masquerade Valentine party in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening, which was largely attended and a success in every way. The members came masked and some of the costumes were unusually unique and original. For the prettiest costume Miss Joyce Estaque was awarded first prize and for the most comical, Miss Delia Abernathy. The prizes for the men went to Albert Abernathy and Clarence McDougal.

Dancing was the principal diversion of the evening, the hall being very attractively decorated in red and white, long streamers of hearts being arranged from the center light to the four corners of the room. The "zoo," located in the corner, where cookies were dispensed, was an attractive place. Some dainty refreshments were served. The committee in charge was composed of Miss Joyce Estaque, chairman; Mrs. Joseph R. Pine, Otis Ermy, Miss Ethel Cox and Clark Rothwell.

Entertains Senior Class.

fully equipped and provisioned, to set out for the gulf of Mexico to augment the naval forces.

Of the battleships, the Georgia is due to reach Vera Cruz tomorrow, while the Virginia is due in Tampico the same day. By Sunday the Nebraska and Vermont also should have completed their journey to Vera Cruz.

The Cruiser South Dakota should be off Acapulca, long a storm center of the revolution not later than Sunday. As they are all so near their destinations, acting Secretary Winthrop said it would hardly be expedient to attempt their recall immediately. It probably will be determined to leave at least one warship off the Pacific and at Atlantic coasts while the others may return to their routine duties or perhaps be pressed into Central American service where conditions, which it is feared forecast for a general uprising have been lost sight of on account of the concern of officials over Mexico.

Officials in Consultation.

Secretary Knox was early in consultation with assistant Secretary Huntington Wilson and the state department staff tonight immediately after the announcement from Mexico. He was sent to Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson in the Mexican capital. It was said no definite instructions will be sent to Mr. Wilson until he had officially reported the abdication of President Madero.

In the absence of such a report, department officials declined to comment upon the sudden and dramatic turn in Mexican affairs.

President Taft Notified.

President Taft when the news reached Washington was at dinner at the home of Secretary Mac Veagh. He was notified of the development at once by white house attaches, and soon afterward heard from the secretary of state. Though the president's conference of cabinet officials later in the night, it was not regarded as probable, however, that any of the plans promulgated by the government early in the week for protecting American interests in Mexico would be altered at this time.

Justifies U. S. Action.

Madero's resignation it is felt generally by officials here justifies the correctness of this government's attitude in adopting and following persistently a hands-off policy in the solution of the Mexican situation and it also is the prevailing opinion that it will be expedient to continue a patrol in Mexican waters until conditions have settled considerably.

NEW SCHOOL BILL.

To Encouragement Establishment of Vocational Courses—Approved by Large and Widely Representative Conference.

The committee which was appointed to draft a new school bill for Illinois has finished its labors and the bill has been approved by a conference made up of committees of Illinois Bankers' association, Illinois State Federation of Commercial Clubs, Illinois Farmers' Institute, Illinois State Teachers' association, Illinois Manufacturers' association, Institute Commercial Law and Criminology, every university and state normal school in the state, the City club, Commercial club, Civic Federation and Association of Commerce and Woman's clubs of Chicago, together with various public and country school superintendents and teachers and individuals from various parts of the state—the only large and widely representative conference ever called for the purpose in this state.

How the Bill was Drawn.

Mr. B. F. Harris of Champaign was chairman of the conference and W. G. Edens of Chicago, the secretary, and the members of the committee which followed the direction of the conference, in drawing the bill, were: Edmund J. James, University of Illinois; Frank L. Mann, Illinois Farmers' Institute; O. J. Kern, county superintendent of schools; E. R. Wright, Illinois Federation of Labor; F. M. Leavitt, Illinois State Teachers' association; Geo. M. Reynolds, Illinois Bankers' association; F. G. Blair, superintendent of public instruction; Edwin G. Cooley and Julius Rosenwald.

The bill is designed to encourage, through state aid, boards of directors and boards of education to establish and maintain vocational and pre-vocational courses of instruction and training in agriculture, commerce and in the domestic and industrial arts and to encourage the preparation of teachers to teach such courses, etc.

Among the several good features of the bill is the one which provides for the formation of associated districts, and country and village schools, forming association with high schools maintaining approved vocational or pre-vocational courses of instruction and training, as provided in the bill, may be reimbursed annually to the extent of one-half the cost of maintaining such courses.

Under the provisions of this bill rural and village schools may group for the purpose of employing teachers or supervisors to give instructions in the courses provided for, and may be reimbursed annually to the extent of one-half the cost of maintaining such courses.

The chairman of the conference, Mr. B. F. Harris, says: "Much more is done for the town boys and girls than for those in the country. But many states are at work on the problem and I am glad to say the business men and business clubs of Illinois and all its primary interests, through this conference of all interests, which it was my privilege, as president of the Illinois Bankers' association, to call, are expecting state wide legislation that will improve conditions."

Anyone desiring further information in reference to this bill, can secure it and full text of the bill by addressing request to the secretary of the conference, Mr. W. G. Edens, Central Trust Co. Bldg., 119 S. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.—H. A. McKeene, secretary Illinois Farmers' Institute.

PRESIDENT VETOES LITERACY BILL

vision violates a principle that was in my opinion to be upheld in dealing with our immigration. I refer to the literacy test. For the reasons stated in Secretary Nagel's letter to me I cannot approve that test. The secretary's letter accompaniment this.

Nagel Makes Statement.

Secretary Nagel said the literacy test was defended as practical measure to exclude a large proportion of undesirable immigrants from certain countries, the final purpose being to reduce the quantity of cheap labor in the United States. He admitted the possibility that the law would exclude many immigrants from certain countries, "probably in large part undesirable but also a great many desirable people, and the embarrassment, expenses and distress to those who seek to enter would be out of all proportion to any good that can possibly be promised for this measure."

He said that immigrants are frequently illiterate because opportunities have been denied them. The secretary said America needed labor and the natives were unwilling to do the work which aliens come over to do. The secretary defined the character of the great majority of immigrants to the United States and declared that with rapid strides the foreign born citizens are acquiring the farm lands of this country.

The bill is designed to encourage, through state aid, boards of directors and boards of education to establish and maintain vocational and pre-vocational courses of instruction and training, as provided in the bill, may be reimbursed annually to the extent of one-half the cost of maintaining such courses.

The annual pension appropriation bill carrying $180,300,000 an increase of $15,000,000 over last year was taken up by the house to day. The bill carries a greater total than any annual pension bill ever reported to the house. The increase is caused by the extension of the pension roll by the new Sherwood pension law.

Passes Consular Bill.

The house to day passed the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill carrying $3,764,642, an increase of $180,195 over last year. An amendment to provide $50,000,000 for buildings at Mexico City, Tokio and Hanover was ruled out as was an amendment to appropriate $20,000 for The Hague peace palace art collection.

LINCOLN'S FAMOUS DUEL

The Ridiculous Advantage Old Abe Had and How It Turned Out.

This is the story of the Lincoln-Shields duel, as told by William Souther, an eye witness: "It was," said Mr. Souther, "on the morning of Sept. 22, 1843, that Shields and Lincoln arrived at Alton. I was then printer and reporter on the Alton Telegraph, and had received an intimation of the coming duel, which made me resolve to see it if possible. The dueling party took breakfast at the Franklin house and about 10:30 in the forenoon proceeded to the ferry boat, which was propelled by two horses, which worked around a windlass at one end of the ferry deck, and I made arrangements with Chapman to drive these horses. A young fellow by the name of Broughton also smuggled himself aboard as a horse driver, making just ten of us in all, as I remember.

"Lincoln and his party sat at one side of the boat and Shields and his party at the other. The only things which looked belligerent about the equipment were six long cavalry sabres which lay on the deck in charge of Lincoln's seconds. There was no talking between the opposite sides and everything proceeded as solemnly and decorously as at a funeral.

"Arriving on the opposite shore, which was a wilderness of timber, a spot partially cleared was selected at the battle ground. Shields took a seat upon a fallen log on one side of the little clearing, and Lincoln encouned himself on another at the opposite side. The seconds then proceeded to cut a pole about twelve feet long, and two stakes with crochets in the end. The stakes were driven in the ground and the pole laid across the crochets, so that it rested about three feet above the ground. The men were to stand one on each side of this pole and fight across it.

"A line was drawn on the ground on both sides three feet from the pole, with the understanding that if either man stepped back across his own line it was to be considered a giving up of the fight. This, you see, would keep the fighters within range of each other all the time, as neither could get more than three feet away from the pole, and the swords seemed to me to be at least five feet long.

"After all these arrangements were completed, the seconds rejoined their principals at the different sides of the clearing and commenced to talk in low tones. Along with the Shields party was Dr. T. M. Hope of Alton, a big, brusque man, with a voice like a steam calliope. He was very much opposed to the duel and reasoned with Shields a long time. As a result of this talk several notes were passed between the seconds. It was intensely ludicrous to me to see these men handing notes to each other instead of talking out what they had to say.

"Lincoln remained firm and said that Shields must withdraw his first note and ask him whether or not he was the author of the poem in the Journal. When that was done, he said he was ready to treat with the other side. Shields was inexorable, and finally Dr. Hope got mad at him, he said Shields was bringing the Democratic party of Illinois and himself into ridicule and contempt by his folly. Finally he sprang to his feet, faced the stubborn little Irishman, and blurted out: 'Jimmie, you little whippersnapper, if you don't settle this I will take you across my knee and spank you.' This was too much for Shields, and he yielded. I believe Dr. Hope would have carried his threat into execution if he hadn't. A note was solemnly prepared and sent across to Lincoln, which inquired if he was the author of the poem in question. Lincoln wrote a formal reply, in which he said that he was not, and then mutual explanations and apologies followed.

"I watched Lincoln closely while he sat on his log awaiting the signal to fight. His face was grave and serious. I could discern nothing suggestive of 'Old Abe,' as we knew him. I never knew him to go so long before without making some sort of a joke, and I began to believe he was getting frightened. But presently he reached over and picked up one of the swords which he drew from its scabbard. Then he felt along the edge of the weapon with his thumb, like a barber feels of the edge of his razor, stretched himself to his full height, stretched out his long arm and clipped off a twig from a tree above his head with the sword. There wasn't another man of us who could have reached anywhere near that twig, and the absurdity of that long reaching fellow fighting with cavalry sabres with little Shields, who could walk under his arm, came pretty near making me howl with laughter. After Lincoln had cut off the twig, he returned the sword to the scabbard with a sigh and sat down, but I detected the gleam in his eye which was always the forerunner of one of his inimitable yarns, and fully expected him to tell a side-splitter right there in the shadow of the grave—Shields' grave.

"After things had been adjusted at the dueling ground, we returned to the ferry boat, everybody chatting in the most friendly manner possible. But it must have been an awful trial to Lincoln to hold in and not 'loose' the life out of Shields. Before we started back John Broughton awoke and put it at one end of the ferry boat, and covered it with a red shirt in such a manner that it looked like the recumbent figure of a man covered with blood. When we reached Alton the landing was crowded with people who were there to learn the result of the duel. When they saw the dummy at the end of the boat, they almost crowded into the water to see who it was that had been slain. I enjoyed this scene, though it was clearly offensive to all sides.

TRADE HOLDS STEADY POSITION

BUSINESS APPEARS UNAFFECTED BY IMPEDED EVENTS.

Maintains Its Position of Conservative Expansion Despite the Many Stirring Events in Different Parts of the World.

New York, Feb. 14.—Dun's review tomorrow will say:

Business maintains its position of steady, conservative expansion, as yet unaffected in any material respect by the stirring events helping or impeding in many parts of the world. Although the war in the Balkans continues to put a strain on the international markets, it is noteworthy that the situation in Paris seems easier. European advices crop are somewhat disappointing but the winter wheat outlook in this country is favorable, in spite of considerable snow deficiency. The weather in the west and southwest has recently been quite severe and this accounts for some falling off in the rate of gain in railroad earning while the eastern railroads are threatened with a strike of firemen, still is a prospect of amicable adjustment by arbitration. Railroad purchases of equipment continue to be the leading feature of the iron and steel trade, which maintains its favorable aspects.

Grain prices have tended downward but cotton displays a firm undertone. Domestic conditions are against wheat values and the markets are palpably in need of support, which has been derived to some extent from the situation abroad. European crop advices are discouraging in certain respects yet the outlook at home is generally favorable.

Bradstreet's Report.

New York, Feb. 14.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

While there are many cross currents in trade and industrial, distributive business as a whole presents a cheerful appearance and shipments on spring account go forward with alacrity. Relatively most activity is shown in drygoods which is running in excess of a year ago. Western reports breath a distinct tone of confidence and strength. From these the shading is downward to the rather slow conditions reported in parts of the south. Weather conditions vary and with them retail trade reports but the winter weather of the last week has given some snap to overdrive retail trade in winter necessities. In purely wholesale trade for distant deliveries conservatism still is in evidence. Strikes existing or prospective also act as a restraining feature in trade but there seems to be rather less stress laid upon the tariff as a disturbing feature, either because preparations have been made accordingly or because fuller knowledge leads to less uneasiness as to prospective changes. An interesting feature in the general situation is the closely restricted volume of speculative operations witnessed alike in securities, cereals, cotton and other commodities.

Business failures for the week ending Feb. 13th were 285, which compares with 305 in the like week of 1912. There were 27 failures in Canada.

HAVE BEGUN REPAIR WORK ON WATER PLANT AT BLUFFS

B. Haskell of Franklin, Pa., is Executive Officer for the Jacksonville Water Company—Edward Brown Will Superintend Improvements—Plant in Good Shape.

B. Haskell of Franklin, Pa., has been in Jacksonville for a day or two and left last night for the east. Mr. Haskell is executive officer for the Jacksonville Water company and will have general supervision of the work which is to be done on the plant at Bluffs and on the pipe line. He will therefore be in Jacksonville from time to time during the coming weeks. A. T. Maltby of Chicago, consulting engineer for the company, was taken ill yesterday and will also be here and in Bluffs occasionally. Edward Brown, who has been superintendent of the Bluffs plant practically from the beginning, will have actual supervision of the work to be done.

Although the Bluffs plant has not been in operation for a long period it has nevertheless not been in any way neglected and the machinery has deteriorated only to a very small extent. All pipes and machinery were taken to pieces with great care and all belting was given the proper attention so that it will not be a very long period until the plant is again in running order. All machinery will, of course, be thoroughly tested out before the actual work of pumping water is begun and the same will be done with the pipe line. The pipe will be replaced in the vicinity of Neelyville, where the seepage from the material taken from the old coal mine there has caused a chemical action and has eaten into the pipe. In all other places where the pipe line shows any deterioration it will be put into condition.

Grandma Talks About Babies

Has a large Circle of Listeners Who Profit by Her Wisdom and Experience.

In almost any settled community there's a grandma who knows Mother's Friend.
Not only is she reminiscent of her own experience, but it was through her recommendation that so many young, expectant mothers derived the comfort and blessing of this famous remedy.

Mother's Friend is applied externally to the abdomen, stomach and breasts, affords all pain, avoids all nausea, and prevents caking of the breasts.

It is quickly and wonderfully penetrating, permits the muscles to expand within the strain on the ligaments, and prepares the system so thoroughly that the crisis is passed almost without the slightest distress. Thus there need be no such thing as dread or fear.

No better nor more cheering advice can be given the expectant mother than to suggest the use of Mother's Friend. She will make a nurse from the beginning. The days will be cheerful, the nights restful. Thus the health is preserved, the mind is in repose and the period is an unending one of quiet, joyful anticipation.

You can obtain Mother's Friend of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle. Do not forget to rest the body with the greatest repose ever devised for motherhood. It is unfailing. Write at once to Bradford Regulator Co., 133 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their very interesting and instructive book of advice for expectant mothers.

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newby's Her-cide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herccide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfect healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herccide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks had a normal full of hair. Sold by leading druggists,

Hericide Co., Detroit, Mich.

FACE DISGRACEFUL WITH RASH

Large Scabs Would Form, Fester and Break, Itching and Burning, Kept from Sleeping. Cuticura
Soap and Ointment Cured.

Sioux Falls, S. D.—"My trouble of skin disease started merely as a rash on my face and neck, but it grew and kept getting worse until large scabs would form, fester and break. This was just on the one side of my face, but it soon scattered to the other side. I suffered a great deal especially at night on account of its itching and burning. I would scratch it and of course that irritated it very much. This rash was on my face for about two years sometimes breaking out lots worse and forming larger sores. It kept me from sleeping day or night for a couple of months. My face looked disgraceful, and I was almost ashamed to be seen by my friends.

"A friend asked me to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I would bathe my face with hot water and a lot of Cuticura
Soap, then I would put on the Cuticura Ointment. In less than two days' time, the sores and inflammation had almost entirely disappeared, and in four weeks'
time you could not see any of the rash.
Now my face is without a spot of any kind.
I also use them for my scalp and hair. They cured me completely." (Signed) Miss Pansy Hutchins, Feb. 6, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book, Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."
Tender-faced men should use Cuticura

OLD BEREA CHURCH HISTORY IS TOLD

MRS. ANDREW HARRIS GIVES FACTS ABOUT SOCIETY ORGAN- IZED IN 1851.

Old Record Books Contain Names
Long Familiar in Morgan County
—Building Was Erected by Joseph
Black of Virginia—Rev. Charles Rowe First Minister.

The Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society just issued contains a story of Old Berea church in this county. The article was contributed by Mrs. Andrew Harris of this county and is reprinted herewith:

It is a matter of interest that the original record book of the Berea Church of Christ, located in Morgan County, organized August 15, 1851, has been preserved. Mrs. Andrew Harris, of Alexander, Illinois, has carefully copied the record for the Journal. The church is located in range 8, township 16, Morgan county. The land upon which it is located was bought of Joel Robinson. The building was built by Joseph Black of Virginia, Illinois.

The first pastor was the Rev. Chas. Rowe, 1852. Other pastors in succession were, Rev. William R. Grant, Rev. Aquilla Sims, 1857; Rev. Allen H. Rice, 1862; Rev. B. W. Haley, 1866. While a regular pastor has not been employed during the intervening years, still services have been held upon its reorganization in 1904, a regular pastor was employed for two Sundays in each month. Copied from the Original Book, Berea Church of Christ, Morgan Schoolhouse No. 2, August 15, 1851.

We, the body of Christ, agree to organize ourselves after the primitive practice to watch over one another and admonish each other, for our good, to take the scriptures of the old and new testaments for our rule of faith and practice.

That for practice, the new is sufficient, but for faith of both are required. To call ourselves by the name given to us from the beginning in the primitive age by the Apostles—definitely called Christians—the followers of Christ. We agree to continue steadfastly in the Apostles doctrine, in fellowship, in breaking of bread and in prayers. Further as the primitive organizations were named according to locations so that they might be addressed or called upon by the traveling brethren, therefore we agree to be known as the Church of Christ on Indian Creek, meeting at Morgan Schoolhouse No. 2.

CONDITION OF MEXICAN TRAVEL. Chicago, Feb. 14.—That the way is still open for the departure of Americans from the City of Mexico should they desire to flee from the scene of hostilities is the assurance given out today by the passenger officials of the various lines in this city connected with the national railways of Mexico. There has been no interruption of railroad communication on those lines between the border and the City of Mexico from Laredo and Brownsville and no more than the customary trouble with those reaching the United States line at El Paso and Eagle Pass. There has been trouble for months on the line south of El Paso and tickets over that route have been sold subject to delay, as the revolutionists have stopped traffic repeatedly. But on the first named lines trains have been running regularly.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX.

May Amount to Double Taxation—Its Justice and Efficiency Yet To Be Proven.

Ratification of the income tax amendment to the federal constitution and the proposal for immediate income tax legislation under the amendment by the approaching session of congress, raises the question of whether or not the federal income tax (in constant operation) is, or is not, a desirable thing. The feeling is apparently unanimous that the federal government should have power to levy an income tax in emergencies, but there is a difference of opinion as to the advisability of such a tax as a regular source of federal revenue.

The argument is made by students of tax reform that an income tax is the ideal substitute for the personal property tax, and that it is peculiarly the prerogative of individual states to levy an income tax for local purposes, and that an income tax levied in addition by the federal government would amount to double taxation. Also the efficiency of the income tax as a revenue producer is yet to be proven.

It might be quite as difficult to discover the basis for assessing such a tax as it is to discover a citizen's holdings of intangible property. D. A. Wells in the "Theory and Practice of Taxation" (p. 528) cites figures from the workings of the income tax law of 1869 showing that immediately after its enactment only 259,386 persons out of population of 37,000,000 acknowledged the receipt of any taxable income, and that in 1872, when the exemption had been raised to $2,000 and the population had increased to 39,000,000, the number of persons who paid an income tax ran down to 72,949.

In Wisconsin, where the state income tax has recently been introduced, opinion seems to be evenly divided as to the justice and efficiency of its operation.

No Reform Without Amendment.

So far as Illinois is concerned, however, it will make little difference whether the income tax proves a workable scheme or whether it will require such a degree of publicity of private affairs as to be repugnant and unworkable, for the reason that any form of income tax is virtually impossible without the proposed tax amendment to the constitution. In the present state of things it seems probable that reasonable specific taxes (which should be automatic) from various classes of personal property, are perhaps a more expedient form of taxation than the income tax, but none of these methods of taxation, such as are used in other states, can be tried in Illinois until the tax amendment is submitted and adopted.

These considerations are advanced as additional arguments by the friends of tax reform for the necessity of securing the tax amendment at this session of the legislature.—H. A. McKeone, secretary Illinois Farmers' Institute.

ARMY REORGANIZATION
PLAN TO BE EFFECTIVE

First Step in Secretary Stimson's Scheme Will be Taken Today—
New Stations Assigned to Both Infantry and Cavalry.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Tomorrow will be taken the first step in the execution of the elaborate scheme for the reorganization of the army, so carefully planned by the war college when under orders from Secretary Stimson, six battalions of infantry and one squadron of cavalry, will begin to take new stations to which they have been assigned, with the purpose of gradually forming the army as a whole into brigades, consisting of three regiments each.

The total number of troops involved in this order, only 2,000, is an insignificant part of the whole army of the United States, but the movement is as extensive as the war department has found it possible to undertake, having in mind the extremely low tide in the appropriations for transportation, and the lack of sufficient barracks at the larger posts to admit of the general concentration desired.

The troops affected by the order are the Third battalion, Fourteenth infantry, moving from Fort Missoula, Mont., to Fort George Wright, Wash.; the Second battalion, Ninth infantry, from Fort Snelling, Minn., to Fort Thomas, Ky.; the First battalion and machine gun platoon, eighteenth infantry, from Fort Bliss, Tex., to Fort Missoula, Mont.; Third battalion, Fourth infantry, from Fort Logan H. Roots, Ark., to Fort Snelling, Minn.; Third battalion, Ninth infantry, from Fort Sill, Okla., to Fort Logan H. Roots, Ark.; Second battalion, nineteenth infantry, from Fort Sheridan, Ill., to Fort Sill, Okla.; and the Third squadron, First cavalry, from Boise barracks, Idaho, to Presidio of Monterey, Cal.

To Organize in Brigades.

The purpose of these movements is to bring the organizations named into their proper positions as part of the brigades into which the mobile army is being formed, two or three of these brigades being located with in each of the three infantry divisions of the army, which in turn are stationed within three geographical departments. First and most important of these is the eastern department, embracing the New England states, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, the posts of Fort Logan H. Roots, Ark., the coast artillery subdistricts of New Orleans and Galveston, the Panama canal zone and the island of Porto Rico, with the islands and keys adjacent thereto.

Located within this department, will be the first division of the army, under the command of Maj. Gen. Thos. H. Barry, who will command not only the divisions but the department with headquarters at Governor's Island, and included in his command are the following organizations: Infantry—3rd, 5th, 29th 10th, 17th and Porto Rican; artillery—3rd field; cavalry—10th, 11th and 1st squadron, 15th; engineers—1st, battalion less Co. D, and the coast artillery of the north and south Atlantic coast districts.

The central department, embracing the states of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Wyoming (except Yellowstone Park) Colorado and Fort Missoula, Mont., will be under command of Maj. Gen. William H. Carter, with headquarters at Chicago. In this department will be located the troops of the second division also commanded by Gen. Carter, comprising: Infantry—23rd, 26th, 27th, 4th, 7th, 19th, 28th, 11th, 18th, 22nd; artillery—4th field, 6th field, battery D, 5th field; cavalry—10th, 6th, 3rd; engineers—2nd battalion less Co. F; signal corps Co. D; sanitary troops—Field hospital No. 3 and ambulance Co. No. 3, and field ambulance Co. No. 1.

The southern department, embracing the states of Texas (except Galveston coast artillery district) Louisiana, except New Orleans coast artillery district; Arkansas, except Fort Logan H. Roots; Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona will be under command of Brig. Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, with headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. Located in this department will be the cavalry division, composed of the 1st and 2nd brigades, including the 1st regiment, the 2nd, 3rd, 14th, 5th, 9th, 12th, 13th, 11th and 15th; artillery—5th, 6th, 3rd; infantry—2nd battalion, 19th, 22nd; engineers—Cos. D and M; signal corps—Cos. A and I.

The western department embraces the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana (excepting Fort Missoula), Yellowstone Park, California.

GETTING READY FOR INAUGURATION DAY

Details About Complete For Impressive Ceremonies at Washington.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 14.—The arrangements for the inauguration ceremonies and parade, involving a tremendous amount of detail work, are practically completed, although two weeks and four days will have to pass before President-elect Woodrow Wilson and Vice-President-elect Thomas R. Marshall will be introduced into their respective offices and will take their oaths of office. The grand stands at the white house and at several points along Pennsylvania avenue are completed and so is the staging for the inauguration ceremonies at the capitol; the stanchions for the steel cables with which Pennsylvania avenue will be roped off on the day of the parade are in place and the thousands of electric lights to be used for the inaugural illumination have been strung and placed in their proper positions. Every detail of the inauguration ceremony and of the parade following it has been carefully planned and every precaution has been taken to prevent the occurrence of any awkward hitch.

The coming inauguration will be remarkable in several respects. In the first place the southern states will have a stronger representation in the parade than for a great many years; another new departure will be the arrangement by which the vice-president will receive more attention than ever before, a military escort being provided for him to accompany him to the capitol and back to the white house; another, equally new precedent will be established by the omission of the inauguration ball which in former years used to constitute the most brilliant feature of the inauguration programs.

In accordance with the plans arranged by the committee in charge of the inauguration ceremonies, President Taft, President-elect Wilson and Vice-President-elect Marshall on the morning of March 4, will be escorted from the white house to the capitol with military honors. The procession will be headed by Gen. Wood, as grand marshall and his staff, followed by the Essex troop of New Jersey, forming the special escort of Governor Wilson; then will come the carriage containing President Taft and Gov. Wilson, next the troop of Culver cadets forming the escort of Gov. Marshall, who will occupy the second carriage, which will be followed by the entire grand veteran division, composed of members of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Union Veteran Legion and the Spanish war veterans.

The president, the president-elect and the vice-president-elect will enter the senate wing of the capitol by the bronze door. The president and president-elect will be escorted to the president's room where they shall remain until escorted to the senate chamber, to be present at the inauguration of the vice-president-elect, to whom the oath of office is to be administered by the president pro tempore of the senate immediately before the adjournment of that body. Having taken his oath, the vice-president will call the senate to order and deliver his inaugural address.

The organization of the senate having been completed, a procession will be formed by the officers of the senate and the house of representatives, the justices of the supreme court of the United States, the committee of arrangements, the president and the president-elect, the members of the diplomatic corps in accordance with their rank, the vice-president, members and ex-members of the senate and the house of representatives, heads of executive departments, governors of states and territories, the admiral of the navy and his aides, the chief of staff of the army and his aides and such officers of the army and navy who have received the thanks of congress. The procession will move through the rotunda to the platform over the main portico, where the inauguration ceremony will take place.

After all are assembled, the chief justice of the supreme court will administer oath of office to the president-elect who will then deliver his inaugural address. This will conclude the ceremonies at the capitol and the president and the vice-president, accompanied by their military escorts, will return to the white house, where they will occupy seats upon the reviewing stand to review the inauguration parade.

The parade, in which it is expected, more than thirty thousand persons will take part, including regulars from Fort McPherson, Ga., a regiment of coast artillery, the corps of cadets from West Point, the midshipmen from Annapolis, two companies of bluejackets, military organizations from various states, and civic organizations from practically every state in the union. The parade will be divided into eight divisions, each commanded by an army officer. It will be formed in the streets near the capitol and will march down Pennsylvania avenue to the white house, where it will pass in review before the president and vice-president and other distinguished officials and dignitaries occupying the grandstand in the "court of honor."

YOUNG MAN SOON TO WED HAS DISAPPEARED

SHERIFF AND DEPUTIES SEARCH FOR MEDFORD CRUIKSHANK OF SANGAMON COUNTY.

Was Last Seen By Fiancee Late Thursday Night—Horse and Buggy He Drove Found Friday Morning Near Father's Home—Foul Play is Feared and Investigation is Being Made.

With his wedding less than two weeks off, and when last seen in the best of health, Medford Cruikshank a well-to-do young farmer, of three and a half miles south of Springfield disappeared from home Thursday night and has not been heard from since. His horse and empty buggy were found standing in the barn lot by his father, M. G. Cruikshank, Friday morning. He was last seen by his fiancee, Miles Mae Hall, whose house he left at 10:30 Thursday evening.

Foul Play is Feared.

The condition of the buggy when found by his father lends color to the belief that he was the victim of foul play. The discarded overcoat of young Cruikshank was found with the pockets turned inside out with his empty purse and a number of papers of no cash value which the purse contained. A calling card bearing the name of Miss Mae Hall was found in the road over which he had traveled by his father and brother, John Cruikshank, in their search for traces of the missing man. Officials fear that members of a tramp colony near Iles Junction, who have been making their headquarters in a number of mine cars, and making almost nightly depredations throughout the south part of the city, may have attacked Cruikshank. These tramps who have a sort of lodging house in the mine cars, have given the authorities trouble for some time. Nightly raids on ice-boxes and frequent fights have been keeping the sheriff's force busy looking after members of the gang. Another theory is that he was held up near Miss Hall's home at 926 South First street near where a holdup was witnessed by Miss Hall herself last Tuesday night.

Search For Body.

If Cruikshank is not soon located Sheriff Masters will search the abandoned shaft of the "Loose" mine, near Iles, for his body. The sheriff is of the opinion that if the young man has been murdered, his body would be dropped into this long abandoned pit. This pit which is two-hundred feet deep, has stood unused near the Chicago & Alton right of way for the past fifteen years. At a short distance it looks like a mere depression in the earth. A body thrown into this pit would be exceedingly hard to find, as timbers which have rotted from the walls and fallen into the pit would make the use of grapping irons almost impossible. Light must be thrown into the black depths by means of a powerful searchlight or by the use of mirrors before a search can be made effectively.

MATRIMONIAL

Following the prelude Rev. Mr. Miller preached a sermon on "Almost." There were a number of men deeply impressed with the truth of the message. The word of the text was the admission of one of the last of the Herods, perhaps wickedest family that ever reigned in history. When Paul stood before Herod there was the greatest preacher of the age before one of the greatest sinners of the world. It was a mighty sermon. Herod was moved, though "almost" converted yet was lost. Oh, that army of the "almost." The greatest lament of lost souls will not be their sins, nor the mercies of God which they misused, but the memory of the fact that they almost accepted salvation, yet did not and were lost. Came so near the kingdom and yet were lost."

The Business Men's league may be able to save the weak and wobbly administration from going utterly to pieces in a business way. It is up to the forces of the kingdom of righteousness to see that the administration does not turn the city over bodily to the devil and friends of the saloon business."

FOLLOWING THE SICK.

Mrs. W. M. Skeen of Franklin who has been a patient at Passavant hospital about two weeks is reported seriously ill.

Constable A. Ferguson who has been very ill at his home on Hardin avenue, is able to be out again.

J. P. Brown was at his place of business yesterday after several days illness with lippinger.

Mrs. Harriet R. Weir is quite ill at the home of her son, Miller Weir, at 623 West State street. The lady has reached the advanced age of 91 years, and is quite feeble.

WEEK OF GREAT INTEREST AT GRACE CHURCH REVIVAL

Dr. J. W. Miller Outlines Moral Situation of Community in Prelude—Sermon on Subject "Almost."

A fine crowd at the Friday night meeting closed a week of unusual interest and attendance. The prelude given by Rev. Mr. Miller last night was an outline of the moral situation and the battle that is coming before this community between the forces of evil against the forces of righteousness as he views it. Rev. Mr. Miller said in part:

"Great is the Mystery of Godliness, but there is a greater mystery, it is the mystery of ungodliness. The strangest thing under the sun is the fact that men will take their stand with the devil.

"When you remember that God made the world for man and filled it with great treasures for man's enjoyment, when you remember that He made the man and endowed him with such noble faculties, when you remember that God opened the gates of immortality for man then to think that men will take the side of the devil as against God, there is no greater mystery in the world.

"That is the battle that is on here in Jacksonville. Some of our citizens are taking sides with the devil in his effort to overthrow the forces of God and His kingdom. Now when you stop to think of it right here we have to get ready for a most strenuous fight to hold the ground gained against the devil because men will take up the cause of this great desperado of the universe—the devil. Then when you remember that the very men who stand at the head of affairs here and manage the affairs of the city instead of enforcing the laws restraining the devil's wickedness they are secretly planning to defeat those laws and break them down. When you find such a situation it awakens indignation in the souls of honorable men.

"The other day some one reported a christian man saying that he had all the fight he wanted and could be counted out of the fight that is coming on. Then let him take off the christian armor. Let him not wear Christ's name. That name was never worn by a coward or a deserter. There are too many men that want to get through without any fighting. The town is infested with men who just want to go through on flower beds of ease while others fight to win the prize and sail through bloody seas.

"If the men who belong to clubs and who never miss a session of the club were as faithful when the call comes for the clans to get ready to fight the battle of righteousness, there would be a far greater certainty of victory.

"The friends of the saloon are cultivating the young men's votes. The young voters will hold the balance of power this fall. Where will they cast their votes? The answer to that question will indicate on which victory will fall.

"The Business Men's league may be able to save the weak and wobbly administration from going utterly to pieces in a business way. It is up to the forces of the kingdom of righteousness to see that the administration does not turn the city over bodily to the devil and friends of the saloon business."

Following the prelude Rev. Mr. Miller preached a sermon on "Almost." There were a number of men deeply impressed with the truth of the message. The word of the text was the admission of one of the last of the Herods, perhaps wickedest family that ever reigned in history. When Paul stood before Herod there was the greatest preacher of the age before one of the greatest sinners of the world. It was a mighty sermon. Herod was moved, though "almost" converted yet was lost. Oh, that army of the "almost." The greatest lament of lost souls will not be their sins, nor the mercies of God which they misused, but the memory of the fact that they almost accepted salvation, yet did not and were lost. Came so near the kingdom and yet were lost."

REV. G. W. FLAGGE AND REV. HY. S. ALKIRE

were present and assisted in the service. Miss Jones of the Woman's college sang a very impressive song. Sunday will be a day of great importance in the week's program. It will be decision day with the Sunday school. A good many are planning to unite with the church on Sunday. There will be no services this evening.

DEMOCRATS PLAN FOR SENATORSHIP DEAL

FRIENDS OF COL. LEWIS ARE BEHIND THE MOVEMENT

Propose to Join With Either Republicans or Progressives to Effect Election of Colonel for Long Term and Other Party For Short Term.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL, FEB. 14.—A movement was started to day by some of the Democratic law makers in Springfield, the ultimate aim of which is to effect a deal on the two United States senatorships. Friends of Col. Lewis are back of the movement. They propose, it is said, to make a deal with either Republicans or Progressives by which they hope to effect the election of Col. Lewis for the long term, the other party to take the short term. They are fearful it is said, that unless Col. Lewis' friends assent to such a combination some other deal is certain to be formed, and, naturally, it would eliminate Col. Lewis entirely. It might even mean a Republican or Progressive for the long term leaving the Democratic side the short end of the trade they argue.

It is the intention of the promoters of the plan to get the general sentiment of the Democratic members on the subject before proceeding further. If a similar view of the situation is taken by their colleagues the first step to follow will be to bond a trusted emissary to President Wilson and put the proposition up to him. If the president-elect approves, he will be asked to send word to the Illinois Democrats that a deal on the senatorial situation will be agreeable to him. In that case they believe the deadlock can be broken in a satisfactory manner, without any further delay.
